

Our ambition is for all Bury’s children and young people<sup>1</sup> to have access to quality learning, make excellent progress and to be supported effectively throughout their learning journey.

Bury Council, early years providers, schools, colleges and other partners will work together supporting and challenging each other to drive improvements, check on success and build resilience across the partnership.

Key facts:

- 45,130 children and young people aged 0-18 live in Bury and this is expected to rise by 6% by 2026
- 122 languages are spoken
- 4,859 school aged children have special educational needs and/or disabilities
- 15% of school aged children are entitled to free school meals
- xxx children under 5 use the Children’s Centres across the five hubs
- There are xx childcare settings, 86 schools and two post-16 providers within Bury

- 82% of Bury schools are judged good or outstanding
- The percentage of children and young people attaining the expected standard aged 5, 6, 7 and 16 was below the national average
- Exclusions from secondary schools are xx% above the national average
- Educational progress outcomes for children in care and those with special educational needs and/ or disabilities are lower than the national average

Our three Strategic Priorities

1. Inclusion

Person-centred and inclusive learning opportunities are accessible for all

2. Achievement

Rates of progress in learning improve for all, especially the most vulnerable

3. Transition

Effective transition at key points leads to successful, sustained engagement in learning and positive progression

What we want to achieve

- Inclusive policy and practice in all schools reflects agreed expectations
- Early and accurate identification of barriers to learning, including social and emotional mental health needs
- Learning provision matches the needs of all children and young people
- Integrated services work collaboratively to promote inclusion
- Inclusion needs, at a range of levels, are met through partnership working
- No permanent exclusions
- Clear pathways to specialist services
- Sufficient, high quality early years provision up to age 5
- Improved number of children who are school ready at age 5
- Improved progress at age 16 so that more pupils are well prepared for post-16 education
- An autonomous school-led system with greater capacity to lead improvements together
- A good level of achievement for disadvantaged children and young people, especially those with special educational needs and/ or disabilities and those in care
- Curriculum provision includes a range of pathways which match the needs and aspirations of young people in our secondary schools & colleges
- Transitions within the early years and into primary are effective by ensuring children and their families are well supported and ready for school
- Primary/secondary transition is effective, supported by a mutual understanding of curricular expectations
- Young people have the skills and knowledge required to make well informed choices on leaving school
- Young people with special educational needs and/or disabilities, in care or care leavers are in sustained education, employment or training
- Young people are prepared for working life
- Effective transition pathways are in place for young people with special educational needs and/or disabilities; including preparation for adulthood

<sup>1</sup> For the purposes of this strategy, Bury’s children and young people are defined as 0–18 years and 0–25 years for young people with special educational needs and/or disabilities
