Details of Operational Decision Taken [with reasons]: Greater Manchester Police are holding a Drink Drug awareness days with the use of a Simulator van and setting it to drink drive mode so people can actually get in and drive it as if they have had a drink. Drink and Drug drive is one of the fatal 5 and they are trying to educate people to the dangers of it. The van is Volkswagen Transporter that is kitted out with a race driving seat, gears, pedals and 3 screens, it can be set to different modes so can be used for specific training/awareness events. 3 staff will attend with the van, and they will also bring "beer goggles" and a few dexterity games for people to try with the goggles on.
