

Chief Executive Scheme of Delegation to Officers

1. To support the Council's intention that decision taking should be delegated in the interests of speed, and consistent with democratic accountability and openness, the Constitution delegate's officer decision making to the Chief Executive.
2. The Chief Executive is unable to take all decisions personally and this scheme of delegation sets out: who the chief executive has authorised to take decisions or fulfil specified proper officer functions on his behalf; and the framework in which those delegations may be exercised. Decisions relating to executive/cabinet functions refer to non-key decisions ie under £500,000 only. Decisions relating to council functions are described as non-executive.
3. It remains open to the officer making the delegation to call back a matter for their own determination, and for the decision maker to refer a matter back to the officer who delegated it to them.

 - be clear about what the council wants to happen, how it will be achieved, who is accountable for the decision and who is accountable for implementing it and monitoring implementation;
 - consult properly and have regard to the professional advice from the council's officers, in particular the Council Solicitor and Monitoring Officer and Section 151 officer;
 - have regard to the public sector equality duty and respect for natural justice and human rights;
 - make the decision public unless there are good reasons for it not to be;

- give due weight to all material considerations, only take relevant matters into account, and make sure the action is proportionate to what the council wants to happen;
- explain what options were considered and give the reasons for the decision; follow proper procedures
- Undertake an equality analysis and ensure that any overriding public interest is maintained.

8. Without prejudice to these delegations, senior managers are expected to have regard to any resolution of full Council, Cabinet, relevant cabinet member or committee, on any matter of principle or policy relating to the power being exercised and shall, as appropriate:
