Purpose of this report

This report provides the Audit Committee with information about progress in delivering our responsibilities as your external auditors for Bury Metropolitan Borough Council (the Council) for the years ending 31 March 2022, 31 March 2023 and 31 March 2024.

Audit for the year ending 31 March 2022

Financial statements audit

A number of items previously reported as outstanding remain outstanding, items currently in progress are:

- We are waiting for the Council's assessment of the existence of RAAC in any Council buildings and the potential impairment of valuations reflected in the financial statements;
- Responses to our queries in respect of related party disclosures;
- Final audit file review and closure.

We will issue a follow up letter to this Committee following the completion of the outstanding work.

Value for Money audit

We have commenced our work on the Council's value for money arrangements. We received the final supporting documents requested from the Council in relation to our 2021/22 value for money work on 9 July 2024. We are in the process of reviewing this evidence.

We plan to complete and report our Value for Money arrangements work alongside the remaining aspects of work on the financial statements.

Audit for the year ending 31 March 2023

Our audit planning work for the 31 March 2023 year is substantially complete, including:

- Risk assessment procedures;
- Updating our understanding of the Council;
- Documenting systems and controls; and
- Performing walkthroughs.

There are however a number of outstanding queries with the Council relating to our planning work.

From the work completed to date we have identified a number of control issues to report to the Committee:

- The Council's bank reconciliation is required to be completed within 6 weeks of the month end. During 2022/23, 8 of the 12 monthly bank recs were not completed within 6 weeks.
- The Council's internal control processes require all bank reconciliations to be subject to review by a second officer once completed. The bank reconciliations we have looked at for the period June 2022 to December 2023 do not demonstrate evidence of this review having been completed. officer.

Audit for the year ending 31 March 2024

Alongside completing our audit planning work for the 31 March 2023 audit, we have completed a number of planning procedures for the 31 March 2024 audit, including documenting systems and controls and performing walkthroughs.

Local Audit Backlog update

Prior to the calling of the general election on 4 July 2024, the Department of Levelling Up, Housing and Communities ('DLUHC') had consulted on proposed arrangements which would implement a 30 September 2024 backstop date for all audits for the 31 March 2023 financial year and earlier, where these are not yet complete. Similar dates were being considered to bring the backstop date forward each year for the next five years. These considerations are now on hold pending the new Government's consideration.

We are committed to the delivery of both high quality and timely audits. In this context, we will continue with open discussions with management to agree on an appropriate timelines for completion of the required work.

NAO

2. NAO insight: Digital transformation in government: a guide for senior leaders and audit and risk committees

The NAO has published a guide for senior leaders and audit and risk committees on Digital transformation in government. The guide can support those tasked with overseeing large-scale digital change to understand the core issues and pitfalls to avoid. The guide identifies seven areas where the more persistent obstacles stand in the way of successful digital transformation in government and have grouped them into three themes:

- Constraints of the existing environment
- Under-estimating the scope of early work
- Lack of skills and leadership

3. NAO insight: Good practice in annual reporting

Transparent, timely, and clear annual reporting in the public sector has never been more important.

A good annual report is a key opportunity for bodies in the public sector to:

- weave a compelling narrative that resonates with the public
- serve as a tool for accountability by shedding light on how taxpayer's money has been spent
- equip stakeholders with information to hold organisations to account.

The list is not definitive but should provide ideas on content and format for all bodies in both the public and private sector as they plan their annual reporting for 2023-24.

5. Addressing the local audit backlog in England: Consultation

The external auditing of local bodies is vital in supporting democratic accountability and providing assurance for local people and their elected representatives. The consultation sought views on amending the Accounts and Audit Regulations 2015 as part of a package of cross-system measures to clear the backlog and put the system on a sustainable footing. The draft statutory instrument covers the core elements of the proposed amendments to the Regulations. The Joint Statement, agreed with system partners, provides vital context and explains the cross-system proposals and how the various elements are intended to interact.

The consultation ran from 8 February 2024 to 7 March 2024. Documents relating to the consultation are still available for download at the link below, which is also the place where the outcome to the public feedback will be available.

6. Consultation on changes to statutory guidance and regulations: Minimum Revenue Provision

The duty to make Minimum Revenue Provision ('MRP') is an important component of the Prudential Framework. Where local authorities finance capital expenditure from debt, they must set aside an amount of money each year to ensure their debt liabilities can be repaid. In practice, the application is more complex, but when it operates effectively it should ensure that local authorities do not borrow more than they can afford.

The purpose of the consultation was to seek views on the revised Guidance and final proposed amendments to the Regulations. The proposed changes to the Regulations remain substantively the same as previously consulted on in the June-July 2022 consultation, with some minor changes to reflect responses. The Guidance provides detailed interpretation and outlines the government's expectations of how the Regulation requirements should work in practice.

The consultation ran from 21 December 2023 to 16 February 2024 however the link provides information on the key issues that were consulted on.

7. Financial Reporting Council ('FRC') - FRC report on quality of major local audits

The FRC has published its report on the quality of major local audits which summarises the FRC's regulatory approach for financial years up to and including the year ended 31 March 2023 and sets out the findings from the 2022-23 inspections cycle.

The FRC reviews in the 2022-23 inspection cycle comprised six health and four local government audits. The audits inspected had year-ends in March (or in one case May) 2021 (local government) and March 2022 (health). For local government audits, inspections were selected from those finished in the 2022 calendar year (regardless of the financial year the audit related to) due to the challenges brought on by the backlog. Therefore, more audits were inspected from the health sector and as a result, the findings in the report are more indicative of audit quality in the health sector. Across all suppliers, all financial statement audits were assessed as "good" or "limited improvements required". Areas requiring limited improvements included:

- Audit procedures regarding completeness and accuracy of expenditure.
- On the audit of one NHS Trust, the inspection concluded that audit procedures were not sufficiently tailored to address the impact of backlog maintenance on property, plant and equipment valuations.

In terms of value for money ('VfM') inspections, six related to health and three local government bodies. This is less than the number of financial statement audits inspected because the auditor's work on VfM arrangements was not complete on one audit that was inspected. All VfM inspections were assessed as good or limited improvements required. Areas requiring limited improvements included:

- Risk assessment procedures not being performed in a timely manner.
- Not considering the arrangements in place at the body to manage, monitor and oversee its subsidiaries.
- The audit team not updating their initial risk assessment or reporting to consider how the body had achieved its outturn financial position.

Examples of good practice have also been included in the report regarding risk assessment, execution of the audit, and audit completion and reporting.

8. Forvis Mazars – Preparing for the Procurement Act 2023

The Procurement Act 2023 is set to transform the procurement procedures for public sector bodies in the UK by:

- Enhancing transparency in procurement processes, requiring greater disclosure of information about procurement opportunities;
- Improving efficiency by introducing new measures such as electronic procurement platforms; and
- Promoting fairness to ensure all suppliers have equal access to government contracts.

Our latest article provides an in-depth overview of the new Procurement Act, including when it will be implemented, key provisions and how public sector organisations can prepare.

9. Forvis Mazars – Understanding the new ‘Failure to Prevent Fraud’ Offence in a Public Sector context

The UK Government has recently announced a new corporate criminal offence – the 'failure to prevent fraud' offence – within the Economic Crime and Corporate Transparency Act 2023.

Fraud is currently the most common crime in the UK, and this new offence is designed to drive a cultural shift, encouraging organisations to improve their prevention procedures and reduce instances of fraud. It strengthens existing powers to fine and prosecute organisations for fraud committed by their employees and agents, closing loopholes that have allowed organisations to avoid prosecution in the past.

This new offence holds large organisations, both in the public and private sectors, accountable for fraudulent activities committed by their employees or agents.
